

Your test result on 08/17/2021

Patient Name: Nancy Conn | Date of Birth: [REDACTED]

Note to Patient: Your bone density shows osteopenia with improvement from previous. Continue vitamin D, calcium, and weight bearing exercise and we'll recheck again in 2 years.

BD BONE DENSITY DXA AXIAL SKELETON [REDACTED] 08/17/2021 9:47am)

See Note

St. Joseph Mercy Oakland, a member of Trinity Health

Patient Name: NANCY CONN

Reason for Exam: POST MENO

Exam Date: 08/17/2021 09:47 EST

Report Status:

Ordering Provider: [REDACTED]

FCP: [REDACTED]

BD BONE DENSITY DXA AXIAL SKELETON

COMPLETED DATE: 8/17/2021 9:47 AM

CLINICAL HISTORY: POST MENO

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS: None Provided

ADDITIONAL HISTORY REVIEWED:

COMPARISON: 12/03/2018

RISK FACTORS: Postmenopausal

IMPRESSION:

1. Lumbar Spine osteopenia with a T score of -1.1. Increase of 22% compared to prior DEXA.
2. Femoral osteopenia with a left hip neck T score of -1.6 and right hip neck T score of -1.7. Increase of +10% the mean femoral BMD compared to prior DEXA.
3. Radial osteopenia with a T score of -1.3. No significant change compared to prior DEXA.

NOTE: Color graphs and detailed data used to interpret bone density are accessible on PACS via EPIC.

----- FINAL REPORT -----

Dictated By: [REDACTED]

Dictated Date: 08/17/2021 10:36

Assigned Physician: [REDACTED]

Reviewed and Electronically Signed By: [REDACTED]

Signed Date: 08/17/2021 10:41

Workstation ID: AASJRAD2025

Transcribed By: Self Edit

Transcribed Date: 08/17/2021 10:36

Patients: If you have questions regarding some of the verbage in your report, please visit RadiologyExplained.com for a definition. If you have any other questions please contact your physician.

Physicians: If you have questions 24/7 regarding this report, please call: 734-712-7237 if your patient was seen at a St. Joseph Mercy Pontiac.

Note: Patients are solely responsible for maintaining the privacy and security of all information printed from the Patient Portal.
